

Income and Earnings Disclosure and Disclaimer

Results and effort varies from person to person, therefore we cannot guarantee that you will get results with the help of The Six Figure Mentors, or our own training and business systems. There may be testimonials on this page where people have created results using our products and services but you cannot rely that you will get the same results as the individuals in these testimonials. There are those who will not earn any money with our products and services. Individual results will vary greatly according to effort, determination, hard work, and ability to follow directions.

Any earnings, revenue, or income statements or examples are based on actual individual results and/or estimates as may be stated. There is no guarantee that you will make these levels for yourself. If we know typical buyer results they are listed. Otherwise, we do not know typical buyer results and you should take that into consideration in your decision to use our product or service. As with any business, your results will vary and will be based on your personal capabilities, experience, knowledge, level of desire, work ethic, time invested and an infinite number of variables beyond our control, including variables we or you have not anticipated. Accordingly, there are no guarantees concerning the level of success you may achieve.
